Why the Suffragists Tramped

Through Mud and Snow to Carry Their Message.

By PRANCES SHAPPER.

Do you know that it is just a bit tunny the way some newspapers and some folk generally are commenting upon the resent plierimate of the little suf-fragiet "armo" from New York to Al-bary, with its secret message to Gov.

say?
They frankly admit that the pitgrims took to the road and ran the gantlet of rain, fog, anow, stush, mud, high winds and a vertiable tempest of criticism for the simple sake of giving publicity to the cause for which they frung their banner to the winds—"votes for women."

This special prayer meeting was decided upon by the Woman's Foreign Massionary Board at its triennial meeting in Philadelphia some months ago and was observed throughout the country.

A brocade of dull colors in an old gold ground makes the hat crown and the greater part of the muff. The hat brin is faced with a gold-colored satin and also used for the lining of the muff.

Around the hat is wound a long black velvet scarf, also lined with the gold-colored satin. The scarf crosses in the back and the ends are wound around the neck as suits the fancy. The muff is trimmed to match with black velvet.
